

Name :- Sujit Kumar
Designation :- Assistant Professor
Department :- Department of History
Status (Permanent/Adhoc) :- Ad-hoc
Contact No. :-9312654851
Email ID :- sujit_hrc@rediffmail.com

---

1. Educational Qualification- B.A. (Hons.) History, M.A. History (Specialization in Modern Indian History), and M.Phil in History
2. Details of Research Degrees. The topic of my M.Phil Research is, “Formation of Dalit Electorates (1917-37)”, awarded in 2013
3. Areas of Specialization and Interest – Caste and Dalit Movement in Colonial India, Constitutional History and its Relation with Freedom Movement in Colonial India
4. Areas of Teaching- I have taught B.A. (Prog.) and B.A. (Hons.) Students in the college. List of papers that I have taught:
  - B.A. (Hons.) History
    - (i) History of China and Japan
    - (ii) Issues in Contemporary World History
    - (iii) Making of Contemporary India
  - B.A. (Prog.)
    - (i) Cultural Transformation in Early Modern Europe
    - (ii) History of India, 1750-1970
    - (iii) Issues in World History (The Twentieth Century)
    - (iv) Cultures in the Indian Subcontinent- I
5. Participation in Seminars/Conferences/Workshops etc.:-
  - Presented a paper at a Conference, “Structures of Exclusion in South Asia” organized at Delhi University by Indian Formation Research Society. The title of the paper was, “Evolution of Dalit Electorates: Exploring the Exclusion of Dalit Labouring Masses and Emergent Political Form.” (November, 2011)
  - Participated in many seminars in various institutions like University of Delhi, Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, etc